Petersbourg, May 30.

THE Empreſs, who is expected here To-day from Czarkazelo, will ſet out for Petershoff towards the End of next Week for the Summer, her Imperial Majeſty's intended Journey to Moſcow not being to take Place till the Beginning of next Winter. Colonel Poſnakoff is ſentenced to be reduced to a private Soldier, for the Inſult lately committed by him on Baron Greiffenheim the Swediſh Miniſter. We learn by an Expreſs from Moſcow, that a moſt dreadful Fire broke out a few Days ago in that City, which burnt with ſuch Violence, and ſpread ſo faſt, that upwards of 5000 Houſes, beſides many Churches, Convents, and other Religious Houſes, were entirely reduced to Aſhes, and ſeveral Perſons loſt their Lives. Upon the Receipt of this melancholy News, her Imperial Majeſty cauſed Orders to be diſpatched thither for granting Relief to all ſuch as are in immediate Want, great Numbers having been reduced to the utmoſt Miſery and Confuſion.

Turin, May 31. Publick Prayers are ordered to be put up in all the Churches of this City, for the happy Delivery of the Dutcheſs of Savoy, who is now near her Time.

Rome, June 3. Yeſterday the Cardinal Secretary of State ſet out for Caſtel Gandolfo, where the Court now reſides. Ten of the principal Authors of the late Tumults at Subiaco are ſentenced to perpetual Baniſhment out of the Eccleſiaſtical State. The Pope has ordered 2000 Scudis more to be diſtributed amongſt the Inhabitants of Gualdo, Nocera, and other Places that ſuffered ſo much by the late Earthquakes. 'Tis confidently reported here, that the Malteſe Gallies had a very ſmart Engagement with ſome Algerine Corſairs on the 14th of laſt Month, off the Iſland of Pantellaria, which ended greatly in Favour of the Malteſe, who took two large Algerine Xebecks, and ſunk another.

Parma, June 6. The fine Appearance we have in this Country of a plentiful Harveſt this Year, has already conſiderably reduced the Price of Corn and Bread, which have been extremely dear for ſome Months paſt.

Vienna, June 7. A Courier is diſpatched to Madrid, with the Ratification of the Treaty lately concluded with that Court. The Number of Perſons of all Ages who have paſſed by this Place from Swabia, the Uppe, Rhine, the Watteraw, and other Places in the Empire, is computed to upwards of 20000: Theſe People, who are moſtly very poor, are going to ſettle in Hungary, where they hope to find better Encouragement than in their own Countries.

Stockholm, June 8. Their Majeſties and the young Royal Family came here on Saturday laſt from Ulrichſdahl in perfect Health; and on Tueſday M. Marteville, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, had his firſt private Audience of the King, to whom he delivered his Credential Letters; after which he had an Audience of the Queen. The Separation of the Diet, which was fixed for Monday laſt, is deferred for eight or ten Days. His Majeſty has appointed M. Adlerbeth, Knight of the Order of the North Star, to be Vice-Preſident of the Tribunal of Jonkioping. On Friday laſt died here Count Gyllenbourg, one of the Senators of this Kingdom, and Chancellor of the Univerſity of Lund.

On the 24th Inſtant the King, the two Queens, and all the Royal Family, intend going to Charlottenbourg, in order to receive the Princeſs of Heſſe Caſſel, who is to be married to Prince Henry on the 25th, 25th, when the magnificent Feasts and publick Rejoycings on that Occasion are to begin; they are to last for several Days, during which all the grand Fireworks, that have been preparing for some Time, are to be played off.

Cologn, June 14. On Monday last we had a most violent Storm of Hail and Rain, accompanied with Thunder and Lightning, but we do not hear that the Fruits of the Earth have suffered so much by it as was greatly feared.

Dusseldorp, June 16. Orders are arrived here from Manheim, for the Regiment of Foot of la Marck, which has been in this Garrison for three Years, to march from hence on the 24th Instant for Juliers, in order to relieve that of Isselback, which is expected here towards the End of the Month.

Copenhagen, June 17. His Danish Majesty's Marriage with the Princess Juliana Maria of Brunswick, is absolutely concluded, and the new Court already formed. It consists chiefly of those Persons who had the Honour to serve the late Queen, and who are not yet otherwise provided for. M. Juel and his Lady keep their former Posts, and the young Countess Haxthausen is Lady of the Bed-Chamber. All these, with a proper Attendance, are set out for Holstein, in order to meet the Princess upon the Frontier, and to conduct her hither. Her Highness is expected about the 12th or 13th of next Month; and the Marriage is to be solemnized, very privately, in the Country. But the Royal Family soon after comes to Town, where there will be a publick Entry, and other Festivities, for some Days, at the End of which they propose to return again into the Country for the rest of the Season. On this Occasion the Court Mourning is to be shortened, and, 'tis thought, will entirely conclude in the first Week of July.

Hague, July 20. The Duke of Brunswick Wolfembuttel, who has been indisposed for some Days, is now much better. A solemn Deputation is arrived here from the Province of Groninguen, who have already been admitted to an Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Governante. Her Royal Highness has lately disposed of several Military Employments, amongst whom M. Sonsbeek is appointed Colonel Commandant of a Regiment of Horse, and M. Witten is appointed Captain Commandant of the Second Company of Grenadiers of the Regiment of Lieutenant General Evertzen. We have received an Account from Nimeguen, of the Death of M.
